ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP

UNIFYING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH
Broad-based Prosperity[®]

“The Partnership is positioned to lead our region through economic opportunity and community development with a focus on impacting businesses, leading recovery efforts, and deploying a new diversity, equity and inclusion initiative that will permeate everything we do.”

Sandy Hostetter

Orlando Economic Partnership Board Chair

Central Florida Regional President, Truist Financial Corporation

A message from the President and CEO

I want to personally thank you for your interest in the Orlando Economic Partnership. The Partnership is altering the perceptions of a region best known for tourism by reconceptualizing its economic future. We are leading the creation of a new model for economic and community development that challenges the status-quo and establishes a new path toward Broad-based Prosperity®. The Orlando Economic Partnership is a public-private, not-for-profit economic and community development organization that works to advance Broad-based Prosperity® by strengthening Orlando's economy, amplifying Orlando's story, championing regional priorities, empowering community leaders and building a brilliant region. These five foundational objectives serve to improve the region's competitiveness while responding to the needs of communities, residents and businesses. The Partnership represents seven counties in Central Florida, including the City of Orlando, and hundreds of the region's top private businesses. It's more important than ever that we plan for our region's future. By investing in the Orlando Economic Partnership's bold new vision, you are helping the region advance toward its collective goals, gaining access to exclusive regional data and forging relationships with other leaders committed to our community.

Tim Guiliani
President and CEO
Orlando Economic Partnership

Why Invest?

Opportunities represent the vibrancy of the economy leading to expanded options for Central Floridians to participate in the region's growth. Economic growth alone is not sufficient. Instead, growth and increasing regional opportunities should be diverse, provide sustaining incomes, and reverse the erosion of the middle class.

Capabilities reflect the ability and capacity of the region's talent supply to meet the demands of employers competing in a rapidly evolving economy. A healthy workforce equipped with in-demand skills creates a vibrant talent ecosystem.

An emphasis on access reveals the presence or absence of barriers hindering full participation in the economy. This includes material needs, such as food, broadband connectivity, affordable housing, and transportation. It also calls for addressing the systemic hurdles associated with racism and bias that hinder equity and inclusion.

Three overarching lenses comprise the Orlando Economic Partnership's (the Partnership's) framework for broad-based prosperity as one that reconnects economic development with community development. Each lens focuses attention on the requisite features of an economy built for social mobility: Opportunities, Capabilities and Access.

Building a brilliant region.

“One of the many great things about Orlando is that our public, private and nonprofit leaders work so well together to help lift our entire community. The Orlando Economic Partnership is the embodiment of that community collaboration, and our firm is proud to be a long-term investor.”

– Glenn Adams, Executive Partner - Orlando, Holland & Knight LLP

“The Orlando Economic Partnership is an important convener of public, private and non-profit leaders in our region, ensuring we work holistically to make Central Florida an innovative, world-class community that enhances the quality of life for our many, diverse residents and visitors.”

– Michelle M. Chandler, Partner, SchenkelShultz

“The Orlando Economic Partnership fosters collaboration and the development of regional industry clusters, furthering Orlando's completeness on the global stage.”

– Carlos Osorio, Chief Financial Officer, Orlando City Soccer Club

“The All Women Empowered initiative has, in a short time, laid the groundwork necessary to advance businesswomen in the Orlando through the amplification of stories and the bringing together of our region's resources.”

– Olive Gaye, President and CEO, GenCare Resources
